Our Mission:

Inspiration and prosperity through education.

John Jay Center for Learning, located in downtown Portland, Indiana, is dedicated to helping people achieve satisfaction and lifelong employability through education.

Services include:

- Traditional college courses
- Vocational training courses
- Career planing
- Training and certifications

John Jay Center for Learning provides services for Jay County and the surrounding areas. Our programs offer a variety of options, regardless of a person's age or education level. In order to deliver these services, John Jay Center for Learning partners with Ivy Tech Community College of Indiana, Purdue Polytechnic, Vincennes University, Indiana Wesleyan University. Through a partnership with the Jay School Corporation we are also able to offer Adult Basic Education and High School Equivalency programs. John Jay Center for Learning also has valuable community partners who support our educational mission.
